MVC using PHP

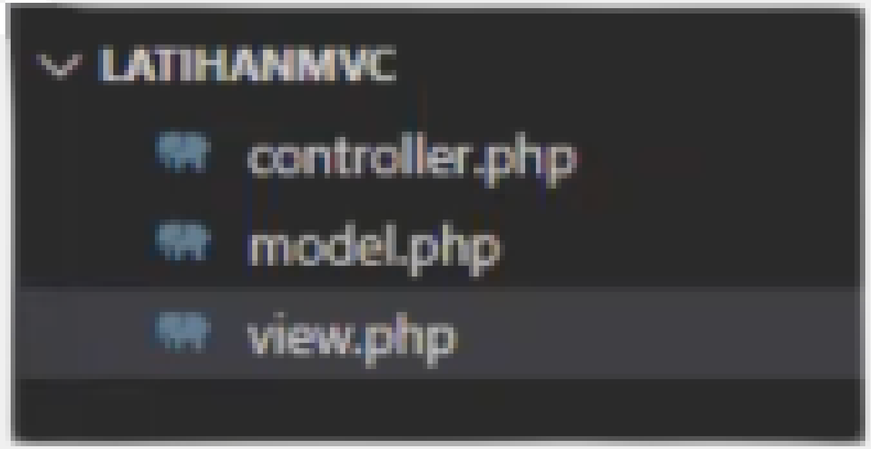

Assignment

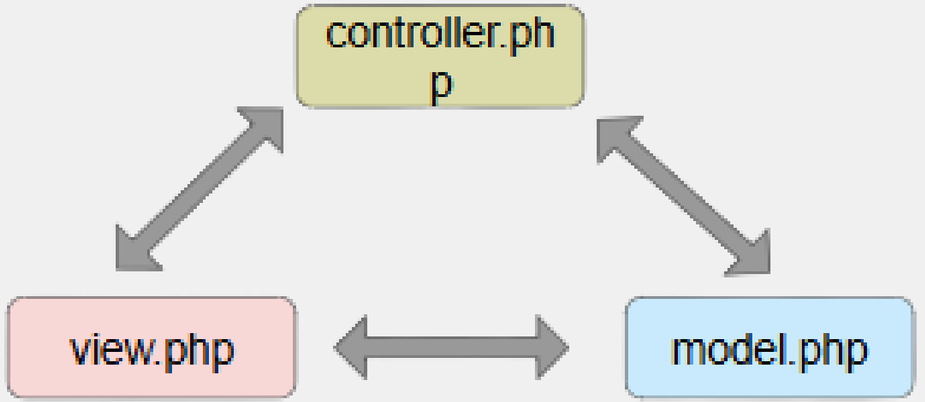

Excercise on MVC using PHP

Create a simple web app using PHP, which applying MVC concepts.

1. The app should be able to save, display and delete the employee data. Video tutorial for this step can be found at eLearn

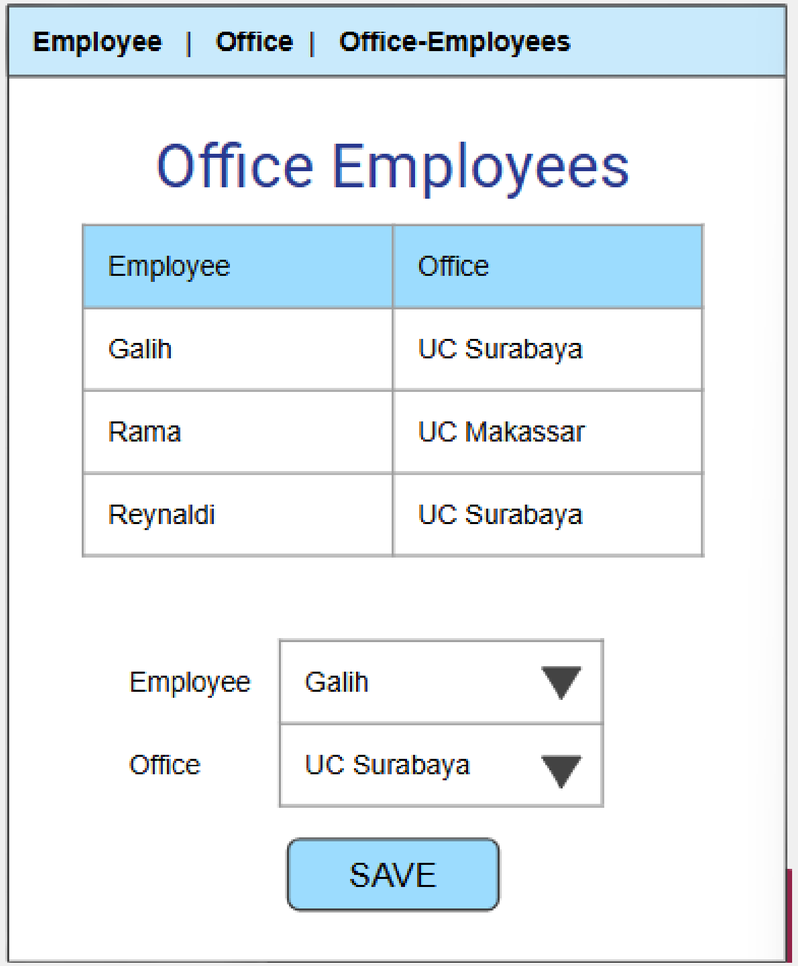

Excercise on MVC using PHP

2. Add another model to the application that represents the office, whose data is the office name, address, city and phone. Applications must be able to store, view, and delete office data.

3. CHALLENGE · Add another feature to the application, which allows us to save the relationship between employees and the office, view and delete them.

Excercise on MVC using PHP

Results of the web are to be showcased in a YouTube video overviewing their web and code primarily how MVC is implemented

The following code should also be published in GitHub and be made public